BUSINESS ACQUISITION

Paramount Fabrics, Inc. DBA Alpine Window Coverings Acquires DSC Window Fashions

01/31/2020 | 08:22 am

Denver, January 31, 2020 – Paramount Fabrics, Inc., Colorado’s longest continuously-operating drapery workroom, celebrating 50 years this year, and a major manufacturer, distributor and in-home retailer of window coverings in the region, has acquired DSC Window Fashions, a 60 year-old North American distributor (to the trade) and manufacturer of its own branded line of Hi-Tech® Roman shades. Richard W. Robertson, founder and owner of DSC Window Fashions, decided at 87 years old, to retire and sell his business. He stated that he could not be happier than to have sold the company to Paramount Fabrics, a like-run business that is employee-focused and committed to the future success of all his recent staff and customers. In 2019, DSC Window Fashions had sales of USD 2.05 million and had 23 employees. Terms were not disclosed.

DSC Window Fashions, based in Arvada, CO, and its product lines, customer list and assets will be merged with Paramount Fabrics DBA Alpine Window Coverings under new management headed by Steve Wilson and Melissa Connors, a former employee of Robertson who had the pleasure of working with him for nearly 20 years prior to being hired by Paramount Fabrics.

Paramount Fabrics will relocate to the building once owned by DSC Window Fashions at 5570 W. 60th Ave in Arvada, CO 80003.
